First Sunday in Advent Prayer

Lord,

On this first day of Advent, give us the grace to slow down.

Let us travel with the Wise Kings, following the rising star and seeking advice as we travel.

As the journey begins Lord, we place its destination in your hands and pray giving thanks and praise in your name. Amen.

UNESCO

Hurling and Camogie Award

It was announced during the week that Hurling and Camogie have been recognised by UNESCO as protected Cultural Activities. Here in Sixmilebridge we were both proud and excited about this because our own Dr. Padraic Quinn was one of the people who played a big part in acquiring this prestigious award.

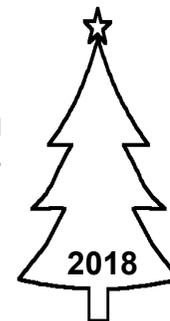

Congratulations! and Thank You! for putting so much into this.

It means that the games of Hurling and Camogie are now recognised Internationally as a special part of our heritage - written in stone - as it were. It was special for us here in that Padraic is a humble man, with deep civic values, played such a big part in getting it.

Our Remembrance Tree

Each year we remember all those who cannot be here with us at Christmas. This year we invite you to take a Candle Card and write the names of absent family and friends and place your candle card on our Remembrance Tree in Sixmilebridge Church.

"When a loved one becomes a memory a memory becomes a treasure"

Sixmilebridge Lights Up for Christmas.

A group of people have been working tirelessly for the last number of weeks to light up our village for Christmas. This gets better every year. This year the lights have been extended up the street and in the Church area Square. We thank all those involved in doing this. Celebrations in the lower Square begin on Sunday at 4.30 p.m. We hope Santa will arrive and the official 'Switch On' will be at 5.00 p.m.
