St. Brigid's Day - 1st February

St. Brigid was born in a quiet village named 'Faughart' set upon a hill overlooking Dundalk Bay. She was born about the year 454 a.d.

St. Brigid,

You are a girl of generosity. You are a woman of courage.

Brigid, give us courage.

You were nurse to the sick.

Brigid, give us tenderness.

You were comfort to the aged.

Brigid, give us loyalty.

You were leader of men and women.

Brigid, give us energy.

You lit a fire that never quenched.

Brigid, give us welcome.

You built a Church with finest oak.

Brigid, give us prayer.

As once you took in hand the wild rushes of the field and folded them in the manner of a cross, so now inspire us to be creative and to take the things of daily life and mould them into something beautiful for God.

St. Brigid
(Brigid)

The Presentation of the Lord - 2nd February - Candlemas Day

Feast of St. Blaise - 3rd February - Patron for sore throats and sick cattle. He was a physician before becoming a Bishop. The Blessing of St. Blaise is a sign of our faith in God's protection and love for us and for the sick.

Prayer to Saint Blaise

O Glorious St. Blaise, who by thy martyrdom has left to the Church a precious witness to the faith, obtain for us the grace to preserve within ourselves this divine gift, and to defend, without human respect, both by word and example, the truth of that same faith, which can be so wickedly attacked in these our times. Thou who didst miraculously cure a little child when it was at the point of death by reason of an affliction of the throat, grant us thy powerful protection in like misfortunes; and, above all, obtain for us the grace of Christian mortification together with a faithful observance of the precepts of the Church, which may keep us from offending Almighty God. Amen.

"Through the intercession of St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr, may God deliver you (us) from all ailments of the throat and from every other evil, in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."
